

Interest Group on International Organisations

International Organizations and State Sovereignty: A Relationship in Flux Workshop Programme

2019 ESIL Annual Conference, Athens
12 September 2019, 11.00 – 13.30
Room 1, 45 Academias Str

11.00 – 11.15	Welcome, Introduction and Overview of the Work of the Interest Group  Chair: Sufyan Droubi
11.15 – 12.15	Panel One  Chair: Catherine Brölmann  <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Frederick Cowell (Birkbeck), ‘Defining Sovereignty by Defiance: How sovereign identity is defined through human rights backlash’</li><li>2. Pola Cebulak (Amsterdam), ‘Legislative Override in EU External Relations: The Construction of External Sovereignty of an International Organization’</li><li>3. Philip Burton (Bristol), ‘Coded Sovereignties and ‘Neutral’ Institutions’</li></ol>
12.15 – 12.20	Break
12.20 – 13.20	Panel Two  Chair: Richard Collins (UCD)  <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Jed Odermatt (City), ‘International Organizations and Areas of Contested Sovereignty’</li><li>2. Kaara Martinez (Cambridge), ‘International Organizations, the Rise of Cities, and State Sovereignty’</li></ol>

	3. Marissa Ooms (Tilburg), ‘Sovereignty According to the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative: From Permanent Sovereignty to Permanent Self-Governance of Natural Resources?’
13.20 – 13.30	Closing Remarks and Next Steps for the Interest Group Convenors