

EUROPEAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW
INTEREST GROUP ON INTERNATIONAL HEALTH LAW

SIDE EVENT

PUBLIC HEALTH IN THE AGE OF GLOBALIZATION: QUESTIONING THE CONSTRAINTS OF STATE SOVEREIGNTY

THURSDAY, 12 SEPTEMBER, 2019

Venue: Hall, Law Library (<https://esilathens2019.gr/venues/>)
National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
Mavromichali 17-19, 10680, Athens

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

08:30 – 08:45	Welcoming Coffee and Croissants
08:45 – 09:10	Keynote Speech (Speaker TBC)
09:10 - 09:25	The Impact of the Clash Between Sovereignty and Human Rights on the International Right to Health Stefano Angelieri (Irish Centre for Human Rights – National University of Ireland, Galway)
09:25 - 09:40	Human Rights Challenges to State Sovereignty in the Field of Prison Health Management: An Analysis of the ECtHR’s Case Law Related to Tuberculosis in Prisons Angus Wallace (University of Geneva)
09:40 – 09:55	The Growing Role of ‘Expert’ Civil Society: From the Negotiations of the Framework Convention on Tobacco Control to the Development of the Guidelines Margherita Melillo (European University Institute)
09:55 – 10:10	The Implications of the Extradition Process on Global Health and State Sovereignty Sabina Garahan (University of Essex)
10:10 – 10:45	Discussion and Concluding Remarks by Conveners