

SHARE - INSPIRE – BE INSPIRED

International workshop on Teaching refugee and migration law

Prague, 6 – 7th December, Faculty of Law, Charles University

THE WORKSHOP

- ▶ will be guided by lecturers specialized in teaching methods and designing courses
- ▶ will include four interactive presentations on building a legal clinic, providing feedback, teaching theory for future practice, problem-based learning

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCES ON TEACHING REFUGEE AND MIGRATION LAW:

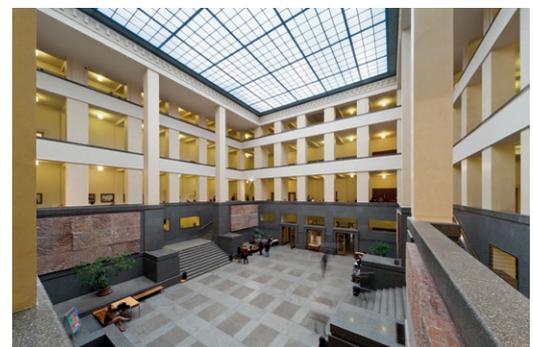

- ▶ (choice of) teaching methods
- ▶ identification of crucial contents for teaching
- ▶ defining course learning outcomes and objectives
- ▶ providing feedback and evaluation of skills and knowledge
- ▶ assessing performance in the course

DISCUSS WITH OTHER PARTICIPANTS:

- ▶ How to teach theory?
- ▶ How to provide practical experience?
- ▶ How to train skills?
- ▶ How to provide feedback for students and from students on teaching refugee and migration law?

Passive or active participation (e.g. with interactive presentation or a poster) is possible.

You may apply by 31 October 2019 through our website <https://teaching2019.prf.cuni.cz>

We are looking forward to meeting you in Prague!