3. The object and clarity of the paper decide its selection and publication process.
4. Co-authorship is allowed to a maximum of 3 authors.
5. All references should be done in the format of in-text citations following the ISO 690:1987 (First Element & Date) standard. No references are allowed whether in the format of endnotes or footnotes. However, footnotes providing further information or subjective notes are allowed. Check out the format of the paper for use here [Link to the paper format: [\[https://drive.google.com/file/d/1GQLOYK4AmOvOSGuzaiZMmhNTiaIb3GBW/view\]](https://drive.google.com/file/d/1GQLOYK4AmOvOSGuzaiZMmhNTiaIb3GBW/view)] (Amended as on & with effect from 01-08-2019)
- Also, kindly provide a Bibliography of List of References as well.
6. Kindly register at EasyChair, a conference management portal at this link provided [Link is provided below].
7. Provide your ORCID (Kindly register at orcid.org for free), in your paper submitted to us at easychair.org.
8. Ensure the originality of the research work submitted. The work has to be fully referenced, and all authors should be accurately represented. Kindly get acknowledgement letters from co-authors before the submission for no objection, if your paper is accepted for publication.
9. Kindly submit the abstract first in the form of a PDF to us at the portal. After due approval given by the team, kindly go back to your CFP portal at EasyChair and update your file by adding the final paper in PDF form only (we will ask for the .DOC file later after approval).
10. Our team will contact you after your paper selection for the due submission of your ORCID.
11. The submission must be exclusive. It must not be published anywhere else, all, or in part. In case of submission anywhere else, the author should intimate the team clearly on this.

12. No abstention of presence during the conference shall be granted to the presenters. Also, presenters can opt to present the papers in the form of either Skype or via physical presence.
  13. Disclose sources of all data and third-party material, including previously unpublished work by the authors themselves.
  14. Strictly avoid fabrication of research data as well as manipulation of existing data.
  15. Openly declare any conflicts of interest – for example, if the research work was intended to benefit any particular service or institute in which the author's interest lies. If the submitted work contains a significant conceptual or textual reproduction of the research work undertaken by/for such institution, then kindly submit acknowledgement letter from the relevant authority.
  16. Expect accurate plagiarism checking measures. Submissions will be scrutinized for plagiarism of words, ideas, writings, information, illustration, graphic representations, printed and electronic materials, and any other original work. The correct citation is essential.
  17. Do proper referencing in the submission by strictly following the recommended citation style. At any stage of the editorial/review process, author(s) will be directed to undertake this themselves if the submission has not used proper referencing styles. Maintain good communication and co-operate fully with the editorial team.
  18. All the selection remarks for the papers will be provided on EasyChair to every individual applicant with the case whether their paper is approved or not.
  19. Only 1 paper can be submitted per participant. More than one papers are not allowed, and only 1 Track, therefore, is to be chosen. If the guidelines are not adhered, the paper shall stand disqualified with due notification issued.
  20. Please note: your interest in submitting full paper for the Colloquiums implies that the paper cannot be withdrawn from the Conference and publication procedure unless the submission itself disqualifies for further publication;
  21. The abstracts reviewed and approved by the Peer Review Committee will be published in our upcoming Souvenir of the Colloquiums with an ISBN. The Souvenir shall be available online and in other possible forms and forums. The team will be in the process of attainment of adequate recognition standards for the papers (submitted after the Colloquiums, provided they are accepted) published, for which, we will contact you and intimate shortly.
