

2020 ESIL Research Forum, University of Catania, 23-24 April 2020

Pre-Research Forum Workshop - ESIL IG on International Law and Culture

Searching Solidarity for Fighting against Cultural Exclusion towards Migrants and Refugees in Europe in Times of Populism

Catania, 23 April 2020

Venue: Law Department, Villa Cerami, 91 Crociferi Street, Catania
Time: TBC

Panel 1: Social Cohesion and the Protection of Migrants and Refugees' Identities

Chair: Giovanni Carlo Bruno (Italian National Research Council | CNR · Institute for Research on Innovation and Services for Development IRISS)

The Danger of Arbitrary Classifications: The Exclusion of Minority-Refugees from Cultural Rights under International Human Rights Law, Stephanie E. Berry (University of Sussex) and Isilay Taban (University of Sussex)

A Close Up on Portuguese Case Law Concerning Religious Diversity, Inês Granja (JusGov - Research Centre for Justice and Governance)

State Policies Adopted under the UNESCO Convention on Cultural Diversity for the Promotion of Migrants' Cultures: Special Reference to the Digital Sphere (provisional title), Ivana Otasevic (UNESCO Chair Cultural Diversity Quebec)

Panel 2: The Contribution of Migrants to Inclusive Cultural Heritage

Chair: Hanna Schreiber (University of Warsaw)

Current Challenges of the Migrants' Cultural Heritage, Alina Gentimir (Alexandru Ioan Cuza University)

The 'Invisible' Intangible Cultural Heritage of Migrants and Refugees in Greece, Tonia Korka (National & Kapodistrian University of Athens)