Draft Code of Conduct for Adjudicators in Investor-State Dispute Settlement: Low-Hanging Fruit or Unreachable Goal?

Online, 2 July 2020 from 16:30-18:00 (CET) & 10:30-12:00 (US East)

A draft Code of Conduct for Adjudicators in Investor-State Dispute Settlement (ISDS) was recently published by the Secretariats of ICSID and UNCITRAL, at the request of States negotiating in UNCITRAL's Working Group III. A Code of Conduct has the potential to address many of the criticisms faced by ISDS and could be an important tool to reform the ISDS system. Speakers in this webinar, all experts and active participants in ISDS, will first present the content of the draft code and then discuss the policy choices negotiators face to finalize the Code and address and assess possible differences and tensions between States' vision and users' preferences.

Panel:

Prof. Chiara Giorgetti (University of Richmond Law School),
Former Scholar in Residence at ICSID where her main responsibility was to work on the Draft Code

André von Walter (Team Leader, Legal Affairs & Dispute Settlement, DG TRADE, EU Commission)

Prof. John Crook (George Washington University, Judge on NATO's Administrative Tribunal, Arbitrator)
