

ESIL Interest Group

“The European and International Rule of Law”

Annual report 2020

Due to the exceptional situation of the worldwide pandemic, the conveners of the newly established interest group have decided to halt the initiation of all interest group activities until an in-person kick-off meeting is possible and has been conducted.

Therefore, in 2020, no interest group activities have taken place.