

Universiteit
Leiden
Grotius Centre

UNIWERSYTET
JAGIELLOŃSKI
W KRAKOWIE

EUROPEAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW KRAKÓW-LEIDEN SYMPOSIUM: THE FRONTIERS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW IN CYBERSPACE

25 June 2021

Following a successful first leg of this Joint Symposium organised by Jagiellonian University in Kraków, the second leg will be hosted by the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies at Leiden University. The overall topic of the symposium is “The Frontiers of International Law in Cyberspace”, taking aim at the challenges posed by cyberspace to traditional notions and areas of international law in light of the interconnectedness of global networks, our growing dependency on information and communication technologies and malicious behaviour by States and non-State actors. The Leiden event will concentrate on the role and impact of cyberspace with respect to human rights and the environment.

MODALITIES

Register to attend via esilsymposium.leiden@gmail.com and a Zoom link will be sent to you by email

PROGRAMME

Welcome (0900-0930 CEST) – Ramses Wessel, Eric de Brabandere, Przemysław Roguski, Jason Rudall

Panel 1 – Social media, data collection and human rights (0930-1045 CEST) – Chair: Ramses Wessel

Elisabeth Hoffberger-Pippan - Social Media and Human Rights: The Fight Against Human Trafficking in the Online Environment

Sarah Zarmsky - To Delete or Not to Delete: Considerations for the removal of harmful content by social media websites

Maria Gabriela Pereira - Automated data processing in the context of humanitarian operations: Do the risks outweigh the benefits?

Panel 2 – State sponsored surveillance and human rights (1100-1215 CEST) – Chair: Larissa van den Herik

Jack Kenny - Cyber operations by European states targeting encrypted communication services: Human rights, state surveillance and the West's war on encryption

Eliza Watt - Judicial Attitudes to the Problem of State Sponsored Mass Cyber Surveillance - A Comparative Analysis of the Recent Jurisprudence of the UN HRC, the ECtHR and the CJEU

Anouk Wear - Human Rights and the Integrated Joint Operations Platform

Panel 3 – New approaches to regulation (1400-1515 CEST) – Chair: Przemysław Roguski

Joanna Mazur / Magdalena Stok-Wódkowska - Free flow of data and data protection rules: friends or foes?

Han-Wei Liu - Regulating Cyberspace through Trade: The Contestation of Online Platform Liability

Ana Gascón Marcén - The push for the international regulation of cross-border access to electronic evidence and human rights

Panel 4 – The environment in cyberspace (1530-1645 CEST) – Chair: Jason Rudall

Gunjan Chawla - The principle of Common but Differentiated Responsibilities: An un-sustainable framework in international law for global governance of the cyber security ecosystem?

Mavili Moura / Daniele Galvão de Sousa Santos - Access to environmental information and the paradoxes of cyberspace

Barbara Marchiori de Assis / Luisa Cortat Simonetti Goncalves - What do plastic waste and 'fake news' have in common? Lessons from international environmental law to cyberspace norms

Closing (1645-1700 CEST) - Veronika Bilková, Jason Rudall, Przemysław Roguski

