

European Society of International Law Interest Group on International Law and Technology

Annual Report 2021-2022

For the year 2021-2022, the Organising Committee of the ESIL Interest Group on International Law and Technology consisted of Abhivardhan, Gavin Sullivan, Dimitri Van Den Meerssche, Roxana Vatanparast, and Rebecca Mignot-Mahdavi.

- The Interest Group planned its second Workshop in a 1-day pre-conference workshop on August 31, 2022, in a hybrid format at the University of Utrecht and online via Zoom. The Workshop, organized after an open Call for Papers, brought together over 20 scholars to present on the topic of “Algorithmic and Technological Modes of In-/Exclusion –International Legal Method and Critique.” Abhivardhan, Dimitri Van Den Meerssche, Roxana Vatanparast, and Rebecca Mignot-Mahdavi served as chairs and commentators. The full programme is available online: <https://esil-sedi.eu/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/ESIL-Tech-IG-Utrecht-Program-1.pdf>.

Our Interest Group aims to multiply spaces of understanding of the role of technology in various domains of global governance, public and private international law. We look forward to discussions on upcoming and essential publications and policy reports on international law and technology, in Europe and beyond.

We encourage our members to reach out with any ideas and initiatives they may have for the Interest Group moving forward. We continue to update our Twitter account (@ESIL_Tech), sharing papers and upcoming events of interest with our followers.

30 September 2022