

EUR & INT'L RULE OF LAW INTEREST GROUP

The Future of European and International Rule of Law Research

Kick-off meeting of the ESIL Interest Group on the European and International Rule of Law

Online Event, 8 September 2021, 11:00-14:30h CEST

The newly founded ESIL Interest Group on the European and International Rule of Law will hold its kick-off meeting entitled “The Future of European and International Rule of Law Research” on Wednesday, 8 September 2021. The event will be held as a side event of the 2021 ESIL Annual Conference in Stockholm.

Programme

Part I: Perspectives on the Future of European and Int'l Rule of Law Research

Discussion on issues, approaches and the relevance of European and int'l rule of law research in the coming decade, featuring input presentations by:

Werner Schroeder, University of Innsbruck, The European Union Rule of Law

Joelle Grogan, Middlesex University London, Cause or Catalyst: the COVID-19 Pandemic and Concerns for Rule of Law Backsliding

Part II: Setting the Course – The Interest Group's Future Projects and Activities

Interactive group meeting on the Interest Group's future agenda and activities.

The kick-off meeting will be held as an online event via Zoom. All participants are required to register for the ESIL Annual Conference. Login details will be provided to registered members.

For further information on the kick-off event and the ESIL Interest Group on the European and International Rule of Law, please visit <https://esil-sedi.eu/interest-group-on-the-rule-of-law/>. For information on ESIL and the ESIL Annual Conference, please visit <http://esil-sedi.eu/>.

The Coordinating Committee of the ESIL IG on the European and International Rule of Law

Veronika Bílková Henner Gött Till Patrik Holterhus Velimir Živković