

ESIL Interest Group on International Courts and Tribunals Public Interest Litigation: The Role of International Courts and Tribunals? 8 September 2021, Stockholm

Preliminary Programme

Panel 1: Substantive Aspects of Public Interest Litigation

- Tom Ruys, Professor, Ghent University Litigating Breaches of Erga Omnes Norms: Are All Erga Omnes Norms Equal?
- Natasa Nedeski, Assistant Professor, University of Amsterdam; Tom Sparks, Senior Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law; & Gleider Hernandez, Professor, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and Open Universiteit Nederland Adjudicating Climate Change at the ICJ
- Eirini Fasia, DPhil Candidate, University of Oxford, St. Anne's College Law of the Sea Convention's Dispute Settlement System and Erga Omnes Obligations

Panel 2: Procedural Aspects of Public Interest Litigation

- Priya Urs, PhD Candidate, University College London The Requirement of a 'Dispute' and the Protection of the Public Interest through Contentious and Advisory Proceedings at the ICJ
- Brian McGarry, Assistant Professor, Leiden University By Any Other Name?: The Coherence of Intervention in Public Interest Litigation Between States
- Jane Hofbauer, Researcher post doc and Lecturer, Bundeswehr University Munich Not Just a Participation Trophy? Advancing Public Interests in Advisory Opinions