Indic Journal of International Law

Volume 2, Issue 2 (September 2022)

About the Indic Journal of International Law (IndicJIL)

The Indic Journal of International Law (IndicJIL) [e-ISSN: 2582-8398] is an independent bi-annual law journal based in India covering international law in a combination of theoretical and practical approaches with its space open for global and Indic (Indian/Indo-Pacific/Asian) perspectives on international law and global governance. It also provides coverage of the relationship between law, innovation practices, commercial practices and international policy.

Call for Papers

The Indic Journal of International Law (IndicJIL) invites solicited as well as unsolicited technical articles, legal articles, case comments, book reviews and article reviews for Volume 2, Issue 2. Legal practitioners, academicians, researchers, students and others interested in the thematic areas of the journal may send their original and unpublished works for publication. The manuscripts reviewed and approved by the Peer Reviewers and Editors will be published. Volume 2, Issue 2 of the Journal is scheduled for publication in September, 2022.

Thematic Areas

The thematic areas of the journal include developments under international law from an Indic (Indian/ Indo- Pacific/ Asian) perspective, novel approaches in legal theory, inter- relationship of law with global commercial practices, global innovation practices and international policy, and contributions made under black letter law. Please note that contributions analysing domestic or regional (Indo- pacific/ Asian) law with other jurisdictions or other regions, and contributions analysing domestic law with global commercial practices, innovation practices and international policy will also be accepted. However, contributions analysing domestic law in isolation will be rejected.
