ESIL Interest Group on International Health Law

Side-Event to the 2022 ESIL Research Forum in Glasgow

Wednesday, 30 March 2022 (9:00-12:30, GMT time)

International Law and Global Health Security: Lessons from the COVID-19 Pandemic

This Workshop will be held in person and will be hosted by the University of Glasgow. Please note that all workshop participants are expected to register for the Forum and to be ESIL members.

All the relevant information (including registration to the 2022 ESIL Research Forum) are available here: https://2022glasgowesil.org/

Please find information about ESIL membership here: https://esil-sedi.eu/individual-members/

IGIHL Conveners: Professor Gian Luca Burci, Professor Stéphanie Dagron, Professor Stefania Negri, Dr. Pedro A. Villarreal

Programme

9:00-9:05

Welcome: Stefania Negri, University Salerno, Italy

9:05-9:20

Key note Speech: Stéphanie Dagron, University of Geneva, Switzerland

Between Intuition and Reality: Is Universal Health Coverage Essential for Global Health Security?

9:20- 10:10

Session 1: Global Health Security and International Health Law Norms

Chair Pedro A. Villareal (remote), Max-Planck Institute for international and comparative public law, Heidelberg, Germany

9:20 – 09:40: Ludovica di Lullo, University of Trento, Italy
The Quest for an Effective Compliance Mechanism in Global Health Security

09:45 – 10:05: Donato Greco, University of Naples, Italy
Global Health Security: Strengthening Due Diligence and Prevention Obligations within and outside the International Health Regulations

10:10-11:20

Session 2: Improving Global Health Security

Chair: Stefania Negri

10:10 – 10:30: Laurie Morgan, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, New York, U.S.A.
Filling the Gaps in Animal Health, International Law, and Global Health Security: A Convention on Animal Protection

10:35 – 10:55: Jennifer Giblin, Edge Hill University, Ormskirk, United Kingdom
UN Peacekeeping and Global Health Security: Lessons from the DRC

Break: 11:00- 11:30

11:30-12:30

Session 3: Lessons from Past and Present Public Health Emergencies

Chair: Stéphanie Dagron

11:30 – 11:50: Ashley Binetti-Armstrong, New York University, U.S.A.
Coronavirus Asylum Bans and Global (in)Security (remote)

11:55 – 12:15: Mariangela Barletta, University of Rome "La Sapienza", Italy
The Meaning of Global Security after the COVID-19 Pandemic: Is Health Securitization the Solution?

12:20 – 12:30: Final discussion