

ESIL Interest Group on the Law of the Sea
Workshop: “Law of the sea and its in/ex-clusiveness”

Utrecht, 31 August 2022

14:00-18:00 hybrid format (Room 116, Janskerkhof 3, 3512 BK Utrecht)
(Zoom link provided by the local organizers)

14:00-14:15 Welcome

Anthi Koskina, Gabriela Oanta, Irini Papanicolopulu & Jessica Schechinger – co-convenors of the IG on the Law of the Sea

14:15-15:45 First Panel

Chair: Efthymios Papastavridis (University of Oxford/University of Athens)

A bridge across troubled waters: intersection between international water and law of the sea – Chukwuebuka Edum (University of Bologna)

The legal status of marine genetic resources in areas beyond national jurisdiction: A third world perspective – Pannavit Tapaneeyakorn (Naresuan University/University of Lincoln)

Old Sea, New Ice: Geoengineering and indigenous rights in Arctic Ocean governance – Romain Chuffart (Durham University) and Aaron Cooper (Stavanger University)

Q&A

15:45-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:45 Second Panel

Chair: Liesbeth Lijnzaad (Judge at the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea)

Judicial inclusiveness of external issues under UNCLOS dispute settlement mechanism – Bin Zhao (University of Luxembourg/Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for Procedural Law)

Exclusion of the third States before international adjudication in the context of maritime delimitation – Beril Sögüt (University of Bristol)

Questioning the legal personality of NGOs in the context of the right to be rescued at sea: focus on the Central Mediterranean route – Matilde Rocca (University of Padua)

The inclusion of the ocean in the Glasgow Climate Pact: A new voyage for the law of the sea and climate change? – Mitchell Lennan (University of Strathclyde/University of Aberdeen)

Q&A

17:45-18:00 General debate and closing remarks