

Institutional Membership Form (2023)

Institutional membership of the European Society of International Law is open to any organisation interested in contributing to the realisation of the goals of the society. Such organisations include law firms, publishers, research centres, academic institutions, think-tanks, etc.

Organisations may choose standard or premium institutional membership. Please see the ESIL institutional membership brochure for full details of the benefits of the two types of membership. The cost for the year 2023 is 1,600 euros for Standard Institutional Membership and 3,000 euros for Premium Institutional Membership. (Note: the membership runs from January to December each year.)

Please return this form by email to esil.secretariat@eui.eu. The fee is to be paid by bank transfer.

Your institutional membership will be confirmed when this form and the membership fee have been received.
