

ESIL Interest Group on Feminism and International Law
Diversity as Fairness: Narratives, Relationships, and the Path Forward
 Workshop programme
 (Via Zoom)

Times are in Central European Time (heure d'Europe centrale, UTC+01:00)

August 30, 2023

| Date & Time | Event |
|-----------------|--|
| 9:00-10:00 | Session 1.A: Can transdisciplinary offer a fair addition in the modern protection of women's rights? Cristina Elena Popa Tache , Professor of international law Researcher member of Center International de Recherches et Études Transdisciplinaires (CIRET), Paris |
| | Session 1.B: Envisioning and Recommending a Model for Future Repatriations of Human Remains and Cultural Items Charlotte Perez , L.L.M in Advanced Public International Law at Leiden University. |
| Moderator | Dra. Carolina Jiménez Sánchez Profesora titular de Derecho Internacional Público y Relaciones Internacionales Universidad de Málaga |
| 15 Minute Break | |
| 10:15-11:15 | Session 2.A: A case for (de)constructing 'Soft law' Swati Singh Parmar , Assistant Professor in International Law, Dharmashastra National Law University, Jabalpur, India. |
| | Session 2.B: A feminist approach to the interpretation of the WTO Agreements: systemic integration as a gender issue Anna Ventouratou , Lecturer in International Trade Law at the University of Sheffield, School of Law |
| Moderator | Maria Panezi, UNB Law |
| 15 Minute Break | |

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| 11:30-12:30 | Session 3.A: Gender bias and the regulation of Artificial Intelligence: Applying international feminist principles to reduce AI's gendered harms Ramona Vijeyarasa, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Technology Sydney |
| | Session 3.B: Sustainable for whom? An ecofeminist reading of sustainability in international law Giorgia Pane, PhD Student at the University of Palermo, and Member of ESIL & Ludovica Bargellini, PhD Student at the University of Palermo and Member of ESIL |
| Moderator | Dr Ksenia Polonskaya, Carleton University |
| 15 Minute Break | |
| 12:45-13:45 | Session 4.A: Fairness, Women, and the Climate Crisis Julie Fraser, Assistant Professor, Netherlands Institute of Human Rights (SIM) and Montaigne Centre for the Rule of Law and Administration of Justice. |
| | Session 4.B: 'Diversity as fairness in the International Court of Justice's rules of procedure' Nikiforos Panagis, Associate Legal Officer, International Court of Justice; DPhil candidate, University of Oxford |
| Moderator | TBD |
| 15 Minute Break | |
| 14:00-15:00 | Session 5.A: Where are the boundaries in International Law? The case of female circumcision Phyllis Livaha, Erasmus University College, Rotterdam |

| | |
|-----------|--|
| | Session 5.B: Woman, Mother, Other? A study of fairness on the arguments used to rationalize differentiating between trans and cis people based on physical aspects Laura-Theresa Godau, Ph.D. student and research associate at the University of Hamburg |
| Moderator | TBD |