

ESIL Interest Group on International Criminal Justice

Workshop on Fairness and Selectivity in International Criminal Justice

Programme | ESIL Annual Conference 2023 | Aix-en-Provence

Thursday 31 August 2023

09.30-12.30 (CEST)

Building Portalis
 Faculty of Law and Political Sciences
 3 Avenue Robert Schuman
 Aix-en-Provence

9:30-9:40	Welcome
Panel 1: Power dynamics and international criminal justice – Chair, Alexandre Skander Galand
9:40 - 9:55	David Hughes “Does International Criminal Justice Need a Theory of Hypocrisy?”
9:55 - 10:10	Rachel Lopez “Aggression in Law’s Clothing: Does Might Still Make Right?”
10:10 - 10:25	Christine Carpenter “Whose [Crime] is it Anyway? How Recent Advancements in AI Impact Our Understanding of Fairness in Key Elements of the Crime of Aggression”
10:25 - 10:40	Yahli Shereshevsky “Complementarity (Un)Fairness – Addressing the Power Differences in the Ability to Conduct Domestic Investigations”
10:40 – 11.10	Q&A
11:10 – 11:25	Break

Panel 2: Selectivity and international criminal justice – Chair, Claudio Pala
11:25 - 11:40	Margaret M. deGuzman “Catching the Right Fish: Selectivity and the Goals of Global Criminal Justice”

11:40 – 11:55	Nina Herzog “Fairness, subsequent prosecutions, and Article 20 Rome Statute: time to rethink the approach to charges in ICL?”
11:55-12:10	Karen Lønne Ring “Selective justice and selective victimhood: Instrumentalizing victims to legitimize selective justice at the ICC”
12:10-12:30	Q&A