

Book Launch

with Nico Krisch & Ezgi Yildiz (editors)

Mark Pollack (contributor)

Taylor St John and Jean d'Aspremont (discussants)

Many Paths of Change in International Law* (OUP 2023)

How does international law change? How does it adapt to meet global challenges in a volatile social and political context? The Many Paths of Change in International Law offers fresh, theoretically informed, and empirically rich answers to these questions. It traces drivers, conditions, and consequences of change across the different fields of international law and paints a complex and varied picture, very much in contrast with the relatively static imagery prevalent in many accounts today.

Drawing on inspirations from international law, international relations, sociology, and legal theory, this book highlights the social dynamics through which different areas and institutional contexts have generated their own pathways of change. Its fifteen chapters – authored by a stellar interdisciplinary group of scholars of international law and international relations – centre on strategies, forms, forces, and social contexts and draw on primary source material and in-depth case studies to explore those paths. Overall, the volume offers a fascinating account of an international legal order in flux – with a dynamic not captured through traditional doctrinal lenses – and helps situate change processes and their varied implications in international law and politics.

Wednesday, 28 February 2024, 17:00 (GMT) / 18:00 (CET) / 9:00 (PST)

Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/97647417459> / 976 4741 7459