

ESIL Interest Group on International Criminal Justice Workshop

Technology and the Changing Landscape of International Criminal Justice

Programme | ESIL Annual Conference 2024 | Vilnius

Wednesday 4 September 2024

15.45-18.45 (EEST)

Address and Room TBA

15.45 – 15.55	Welcome
15.55 – 16.15	Gian Clavadetscher, ‘Harnessing Technology for Restorative Justice: Amplifying the Voices of Victims in International Criminal Justice’
16.15 – 16.35	Shreya Shankar, ‘Algorithmic Anxiety at the ICC: How AI Causes Power Imbalances in the Functioning of the Office of the Prosecutor’
16.35 – 16.55	Franka Pues, ‘Evolving Cooperation Paradigms for Digital Evidence: Reconciling New Evidentiary Dynamics with Procedural Realities at the ICC?’
16.55 – 17.15	Q&A
17.15– 17.25	Break
17.25– 17.45	Milena Sterio, ‘Artificial Intelligence and Individual Criminal Responsibility: A Paradox or a Possibility?’
17.45– 18.05	Kenneth Chan Yoon Onn, “As Already Defined”: Engaging Modes of Liability within the Established Boundaries of International Criminal Law’
18.05– 18.25	Mathias Holvoet, ‘Countering Digital Transnational Repression: Is Current ICL Fit For Purpose?’
18.25 - 18.45	Q&A