

ESIL Interest Group on International Organizations

Defining the Role of International Organizations in the Digital Age

Programme | ESIL Annual Conference 2024 | Vilnius

in person (Omega room) and online at this link

Wednesday 4 September 2024

09.00-12.00 (EEST)

09:00 - 09:10	Welcome
1. How Technologies Are Changing International Organizations
09:10 - 09:22	Digitizing the Promise: Pledges, pledging platforms, and the new cooperative pluralism MJ Durkee (Washington University in St. Louis)
09:22 - 09:34	Amazon lookalikes? The private turn in the epistemic authority of international organisations in the age of digital transformation Rita Guerreiro Teixeira (University of Utrecht) and Ukri Soirila (University of Helsinki)
09:34 - 09:46	Moving slowly, breaking fast: Productization and Privatization of International Organizations Angelina Fisher (New York University)
09:46 - 09:58	The Strategic Imperative of Blockchain Technology in Enhancing Operational Efficiency of International Organizations Shan Ali (University of Padova)

09:58 - 10:30	Discussion
10:30 - 10:45	Break
2. How International Organizations Are Changing Technologies
10:45 - 10:57	Raise your standards: technical regulatory fora in an age of cyberspace politicisation Anna Pagnacco (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)
10:57 - 11:09	Cyber Shields for Global Guardians: Protecting International Organisations from Cyber Harm Isabella Brunner (Leiden University)
11:21 - 11:33	The EU and the AI-Systems. Was It Worthwhile To Be The First? Benedetta Cappiello (University of Milan)
11:33 - 12:00	Discussion

Organising Committee

- Christiane Ahlborn (Trinity College Dublin)
- Laura Luisa Huici Sancho (University of Barcelona)
- Lorenzo Gasbarri (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)
- Mara Tignino (University of Geneva)
- Miša Zgonec-Rozej (Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons)