

ESIL Annual Conference 2024, pre-conference workshop

Social Sciences and the Compliance Spectrum in International Law:
From Non-Compliance to Beyond Compliance

Wednesday 4 September 2024

Radisson Blu Hotel Lietuva

Vilnius

12:30 – 12:50: Workshop Opening

Eva van der Zee (University of Hamburg) & Moshe Hirsch (Hebrew University)

12:50 -13:50: Panel 1

Understanding Compliance: Concepts, Drivers and Processes

Chair: Eva van der Zee (University of Hamburg)

- Reputation beyond compliance - Wim Zimmermann (University of Salzburg)
- Value Contestation and Compliance: Lessons from Russia's Membership in the ECHR System - Lora Izvorova (University of Cambridge)
- Why Dictators Don't Like Paying Up: A Causal Theory of Non-Compliance with ISDS Awards by Autocracies - Manu Misra (University of Exeter)

14:00 – 15:20: Panel 2

Measuring and Assessing Compliance: Empirical and Quantitative Challenges

Chair: Zuzanna Godzimirska (University of Copenhagen)

- Why International Law Needs Agent-based Modeling: Assessing the Dynamics of State Compliance with ECtHR Judgments - Katharina Luckner (University of Hamburg)
- Beyond Compliance Consortium: Objectives and Challenges - Katharine Fortin (Netherlands Institute of Human Rights) and Ioana Cismas (University of York)
- The Renegade, the Silent and the Loyal: ECtHR Compliance Strategies in Poland, Hungary and Slovenia - Ula Aleksandra Kos (University of Copenhagen)
- Reflecting on the Compliance Puzzle of Enforcement of Costs and Expenses Awards - Ezgi Özlü (University of Luxembourg)

15:20 – 15:30: Workshop closing

Tommaso Soave (Central European University)

Interest Group Coordinating Committee:

Eva van der Zee (University of Hamburg), Moshe Hirsch (Hebrew University), Zuzanna Godzimirska (University of Copenhagen), Tommaso Soave (Central European University), Ezgi Yildiz (California State University, Long Beach)