

Artificial Intelligence and Human Rights: New Horizons in European Legal Protection

24 April 2025

(Human Rights Building, Seminar Room)

9:00 a.m. Welcome Panel:
Marko Bošnjak, President of the European Court of Human Rights
Professor Gleider Hernández, President of the European Society of International Law
Ganna Yudkivska, Vice-President of the European Society of International Law, former Judge of the European Court of Human Rights

9:30 a.m. Panel 1: Rights and AI - new rights, old rights, what future?

Chair: Armen Harutyunyan, Judge elected in respect of Armenia

Speakers:

Professor Yuval Shany
“Three generations of digital human rights”

Mateja Đurović, Judge elected in respect of Serbia
“AI and fundamental rights in digital era: friends or foes?”

Anna Adamska-Gallant, Judge elected in respect of Poland
“AI and the right to free elections: a chance or a threat for democracy?”

Discussion

11:00 a.m. Coffee break

11:30 a.m. Panel 2: AI in adjudication - how AI can be used to help domestic and international courts

Chair: Frédéric Krenc, Judge elected in respect of Belgium

Speakers:

Mattias Guyomar, Section President, Judge elected in respect of France
“AI in adjudication: partner or competitor of judges?”

Professors Veronika Fikfak and Laurence Helfer
“Automating human rights adjudication (AI in international human rights courts)”

Professor Samuel Dahan
“Beyond the hype: building and evaluating AI for access to justice”

Discussion

1:00 p.m. End of Conference