

WEBINAR:

Abuse of Process and Abuse of Rights Claims before International Courts and Tribunals

Online (Teams)
11 December 2025
13:30-15:00

Co-organised by the ESIL Interest Group on International Courts and Tribunals and Radboud University Nijmegen, this webinar will explore how international courts and tribunals address abuse of process and abuse of rights claims. Such claims are increasingly invoked by states, yet approaches vary significantly across international fora. Questions remain as regards the nature of an abuse of process claim, how it is assessed, and the legal consequences of a finding of abuse, making this a timely and important topic for discussion.

Featuring presentations by: Prof. Marie Lemey (Université de Bretagne Occidentale), Dr. Letizia Lo Giacco (Leiden University), and Dr. Ezgi Özlü (University of Strasbourg); and followed by a moderated discussion and audience Q&A, chaired by Dr. Sarah Thin, Radboud University Nijmegen.

The event is open to both ESIL members and non-members, but advance registration is required to attend. Register here: <https://shorturl.at/YYBAG>

Interest Group on International Courts and Tribunals

Radboud Universiteit

