

ESIL Interest Group on International Criminal Justice Workshop

Is the International Criminal Court in Conflict?

Programme | ESIL Annual Conference 2026 | Málaga

Thursday 03 September 2026 – 9.00-12.00 (CET)

Facultad de Derecho, Bulevar Louis Pasteur - Aula 4

9.00 – 9.10	Welcome and Introductory Remarks delivered by Caleb Wheeler
9.10 – 9.40	Keynote delivered by Professor Frédéric Mégret (McGill University)
9.40 – 10.10	Panel One – External and Conceptual Conflicts: Legitimacy, Power, and Critique – chaired by Franka Poes
	Speakers:
	• Thomas Obel Hansen (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid) – The Legitimacy Paradox in International Criminal Justice • Amrisha Tripathi (Manipal Law School) – The ICC's Gender Front: Feminist and Critical Perspectives on the ICC's External Political Struggles
10.10 – 10.30	Q&A
10.30 – 10.40	Break
10.40 – 11.25	Panel Two – Internal Conflicts at the ICC: Law, Discretion, and Institutional Tensions – chaired by Alexandre Skander Galand
	Speakers:
	• Marco Longobardo (University of Westminster) – The ICC Appeals Chamber and the Avoidance of Conflicts between the OTP and PTCs regarding Prosecutorial Discretion • Karen Lønne Ring (Roskilde University) – Justificatory Labour and the Internal Conflicts of Legality at the ICC • Ezequiel Jimenez Martinez (Pompeu Fabra University) – The Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute: Taming the Prosecutor?
11.25 – 11.55	Q&A
11.55 – 12.00	Closing Remarks delivered by Kyra Wigard