

In the context of the World Food Day

Innovate
today. Nourish
tomorrow.

#WorldFoodDay
fao.org/world-food-day

FAO International Law Day

FAO contribution to the development of international law: innovate today, nourish tomorrow.

29 October 2026 | FAO headquarters, Rome & Zoom

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) is pleased to invite you to the inaugural FAO International Law Day.

The event will combine the annual FAO Law Lecture with an Open Day for Universities and Academic Institutions

2026 FAO Law Lecture

delivered by
H.E. Santiago Oñate Laborde
Register here

Open Day

For Universities and Academic Institutions
Apply here

H.E. Santiago Oñate Laborde

has held a range of diplomatic and legal roles, including Ambassador of Mexico to the United Kingdom and the Netherlands, Permanent Representative to the OPCW, OPCW Legal Adviser, and first Coordinator of the OPCW Investigation and Identification Team (IIT). In 2025, he was appointed an Honorary Officer of the Order of the British Empire for services to international diplomacy and the rule of law. He has taught and written extensively on international and environmental law, labour law and human rights.

